There are no health concerns or issues which would prevent participation in this Gospelink mission trip. Furthermore, any of the Gospelink staff or volunteers have my permission to seek necessary medical treatment (physician visits, emergency surgery, and/or hospitalization) should the need arise. I assume the responsibility for all medical bills that result from such treatment. Should it be necessary for the trip participant to return home for any reason, I assume all costs incurred including, but not limited to airfare, ground transportation, chaperons, phone calls, food, accommodations, and any other costs that may be incurred.

Any behavior deemed to be inappropriate by the Gospelink leadership or staff may result in the trip participant being disciplined by not allowing participation in all scheduled activities and/or even requiring early departure from the country of service at the expense of the participant or participant's family/legal guardian so as not to destroy the testimony of the rest of the team or the ministry of Gospelink.

All trip participants serve at their own risk and Gospelink is not to be held liable in the event of sickness, accident, death, disease, terrorist acts, or for transportation or any other expense beyond that of the normal team involvement.
